SISTERS' CUISINE CATERING SERVICE VOLUNTEER

Job description
Trampoline House has its very own catering service, Sisters' Cuisine, which is run by women from Trampoline House's Women's Club. Sisters' Cuisine offers catering to private parties and social events. Some of us are seeking asylum in Denmark or have refugee status here, some of us are temporarily living in Denmark or were born here.

As a volunteer in Sisters' Cuisine, you will help us cook healthy, affordable food from all over the world, influenced by our diverse places of origin. You should expect to help cater one job per week.

Responsibilities
- Assisting with shopping, cooking, and cleaning the kitchen during catering jobs
- Occasionally, you will also be asked to represent Sisters' Cuisine at various public events or to look after the children of some of the cooks

Requirements
- Cooking and dishwashing skills
- English skills (Danish and Farsi/Dari skills are also an advantage)

Practical info
You should expect varying working hours depending on the date of the catering orders we receive.

If you have any questions, please email them to volunteer@trampolinehouse.dk

Trampoline House is an independent community center that provides refugees and asylum seekers in Denmark with a place of support, community, and purpose. Many different people with varied life experience make up the house – all united by the desire to better the living conditions of asylum seekers and refugees in Denmark. Trampoline House encourages all qualified applicants regardless of gender, sexual orientation, age, race, ethnic origin, and religion to apply for the position.
